

A few days after the surgery was over, I finally recovered from all the fatigue, but we still stayed at Adam's mansion to monitor Reszurre's condition. He also worked me like a slave in the meanwhile, but I can handle at least that much to repay him for his help.

I see... Oh...?

Sorry, I still... can't feel them...

Ah...!

Reszurre, your right hand! Look...! Your fingers are moving...!!!

Her eyesight and sense of touch still haven't recovered, so she couldn't feel it yet, but the nerves in her fingers are starting to wake up. This gives me hope that if we continue the exercises, it won't be long until she can move her new arm.
